

The 9/11 Public Discourse Project presents

THE 9/11 COMMISSION REPORT: THE UNFINISHED AGENDA

SESSION 1: CIA AND FBI REFORM

June 6, 2005 • 9:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars • 6th Floor Auditorium

Public Discourse Project Board Member and former 9/11 Commissioner Jamie S. Gorelick will chair a panel to review the progress made since 9/11, and since the 9/11 Commission's report, to reform the CIA and the FBI to meet their counterterrorism mission.

The panel will focus particularly on whether substantial improvements have been made in information sharing between the agencies, and within the intelligence community as a whole. It will also examine the status of the FBI's counterterrorism capabilities, and the CIA's efforts to rebuild analytic and human intelligence capabilities.

Participants:

- The Hon. Richard Thornburgh – Former Attorney General of the United States
- John Gannon – Former Chairman, National Intelligence Council
- Chitra Ragavan – Staff Writer, US News and World Report

Press Inquiries: Al Felzenberg (202) 236-4878

Registration: Adam Klein (202) 776-9085

The 9-11 Public Discourse Project is the nonprofit organization founded by the former 9/11 Commissioners in September 2004, to continue their work to make the American people safer and more secure. For more information, please see

NOTE: The Woodrow Wilson Center is accessible only through its ground floor lobby on Woodrow Wilson Plaza. It is not accessible through the interior of the Ronald Reagan Building.**

To reach the Center by Metro: Take the blue or orange line to "Federal Triangle" station. At the top of the escalator at street level, cross Woodrow Wilson Plaza. Enter the Center's lobby at the left (southeast) corner of the Ronald Reagan Building through the handicap entrance. The entrance doors are around the corner behind the large bronze sculpture by Martin Puryear ("Bearing Witness").

From Pennsylvania Avenue at 13th Street: Walk down Woodrow Wilson Plaza, the north-south extension of 13th Street beside the Ronald Reagan Building. Enter the Center's lobby through the handicap entrance at the far end of the plaza --the southeast corner of the building, around the corner, behind the large bronze sculpture.

From 14th Street: Go through the Ronald Reagan Building along the right (south) side of the atrium and continue past it. At the hall's end, turn left and enter the Woodrow Wilson Memorial. At its far end, turn right into the Center's lobby.

To reach the Center by car: Underground public parking is available underneath the Reagan Building at Pennsylvania Avenue and 13 1/2 Street. Take the elevator up to the ground floor and follow signs to the Woodrow Wilson Center. All vehicle occupants must have photo identification and the vehicle will be subject to a 100% inspection.

Due to heightened security, please allow extra time to enter the building. A photo I.D. is required for entry. Unless otherwise noted, meetings are held in the Joseph H. and Claire Flom Auditorium on the 6th floor of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars. The Center is in the Ronald Reagan Building, 1300 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20004-3027; tel. (202) 691-4000; fax (202) 691-4001.
