

The 9/11 Public Discourse Project presents

THE 9/11 COMMISSION REPORT: THE UNFINISHED AGENDA

SESSION 3: TERRORISM AND WMD

June 27, 2005 • 9:30 – 11:30 a.m.

Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars • 6th Floor Auditorium

Public Discourse Project Board Member and former 9/11 Commissioner Timothy J. Roemer will chair a two-part panel to address the greatest single danger facing our country: a weapon of mass destruction in the hands of al Qaeda or other terrorist groups.

Questions discussed will include: What should Congress, the President, and the international community do to prevent nuclear terrorism? How can the Cooperative Threat Reduction program be strengthened, to accelerate the global lockdown of vulnerable nuclear materials? What role can the Proliferation Security Initiative and the G-8 Global Partnership play in fostering international cooperation on counterproliferation?

PART I

A conversation with former Sen. Sam Nunn, Co-Chairman and CEO of the Nuclear Threat Initiative

PART II

- Steven Brill – Founder and Chairman, The America Prepared Campaign, Inc.
- Ashton Carter – Co-Director, Preventive Defense Project, John F. Kennedy School of Government
- Leonard Spector -- Deputy Director, Center for Nonproliferation Studies, Monterey Institute of International Studies
- Juliette Kayyem – Acting Executive Director for Research, Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs, John F. Kennedy School of Government

Press Inquiries: Al Felzenberg (202) 236-4878

Registration: Adam Klein (202) 776-9085

The 9/11 Public Discourse Project is the nonprofit organization founded by the former 9/11 Commissioners in September 2004 to continue their work to make the American people safer and more secure. For more information, please see www.9-11pdp.org.